

Jeffrey Beaulieu

Jeffrey Beaulieu is an Associate Professor and Interim Chair of Agribusiness Economics in The College of Agricultural Sciences at Southern Illinois University at Carbondale (SIUC) and has been on staff since 1984. He received his undergraduate degree in Economics from Loyola University in Chicago. He obtained a Ph.D. in Economics by Iowa State University with specializations in agricultural marketing and statistics.

Beaulieu currently chairs the SIUC University Joint Benefits Committee upon which he has served since 2003. This committee monitors the retirement and health benefits of the SIUC community. Beaulieu is chair of the Illinois Education Association's Higher Education Council and also serves upon the Association's Board of Directors and Executive Committee.